Many positive things have happened around here, so I will fill you in:

1. Duke beat UNLV.
2. Duke beat Kansas, therefore
3. DUKE WON THE NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP!
4. Many record reps have pie on their face for saying we wouldn't win it.

More importantly (in no particular order):

5. I, Greg Lyon, am no longer Music Director.
6. Anne Gomez and Chris Albee are now Co-Music Directors.
7. Their assistants are Beth Rotman, Bill Weydig, and Jim Beach.
8. The new Promotions Director is Bo Osborne.
9. Yes, we are on the air during the summer.
10. Former Promotions Director and Music Director, Bryce Burkhardt, got married this past Saturday!
11. Roger Miller's No Man was way cool at Under the Street last week (a WXDU presentation).
12. Yo La Tengo and Alter Natives will be way cool at Under the Street this week (also a WXDU presentation).
13. James 'Blood' Ulmer and George Adams win the MOST OUT THERE SHOW award for their show at the Durham Omni last night.
14. Watch out for Breadwinner from Richmond; they are INTENSE.

In conclusion, let me say that WXDU is in good hands; Anne and Chris will not miss a beat over the next few months. If you need me for some reason, I will be here at least over the summer. Hopefully, I will see you at the New Music Seminar in July.

Love,

Greg Lyon
